(c) Whether the Union Government has asked security and intelligence agencies to get tough with ULFA cadres and make appropriate responses to their violence; and

(d) If so, the extent to which the activities of ULFA has been curbed?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S. REGUPATHY)

(a) & (b): There is no specific report regarding recruitment of foreign nationals in their cadres by United Liberation Front of Asom (ULFA) from the neighbouring countries.

(c) & (d): Following the twin blasts on 5.11.2006, State Police/Central Police Organisations have been asked to intensify counter Insurgency (CI) operations against ULFA and other extremists groups. The CI operations are continuing. The security forces have been successful in neutralizing a number of cadres of ULFA and other extremists groups.
